

JOB OPENING

Continental Divide Electric Cooperative, Inc. Grants Office is now accepting applications for the position of Distribution Engineer Technician. Application can be found on our website at cdec.coop. Please submit application and resumes to rgalindo@cdec.coop or fax to 505-287-2234. Application will be taken until position is filled.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. Analyze, design, and stake new distribution lines. Ability to use NISC, PLSCADD, and other design software as needed to prepare line designs.
- B. Coordinate large power service processes with CDEC employees, engineers, contractors, and members. Manage material delivery schedule and project documentation.
- C. Prepare cost estimates for line extensions and maintenance upgrades using IntelliBid Estimating Software.
- D. Collect data on the field using GPS Equipment and create necessary staking sheets utilizing GIS-based software and enter requisitions into GIS.
- E. Review, field check, and recommend design solutions and coordinate traffic control plan applications and design solutions.
- F. Inspect and field check completed jobs, validating equipment, electric system configuration.
- G. Assist in securing Right-of-Way and in updating overhead and underground construction specifications.
- H. Assist engineer(s) in uploading and downloading settings, events, and out on the field when required.
- I. Physically fit to perform duties in all types of weather conditions.
- J. Other duties as assigned.

Must possess a valid New Mexico driver's license.

Continental Divide Electric Cooperative is an Equal Opportunity Employer.