

GOVERNMENT-IN-ACTION YOUTH TOUR

Washington, D.C.

2027 Trip Date Pending

Continental Divide will choose 3 high school juniors (2 winners, 1 alternate) for the Government-in-Action Youth Tour. To apply, submit an essay or spoken word video on one of the topics below:

1) A company proposes building a large data center near your community. Supporters say it will create jobs, increase tax revenue and improve local infrastructure. Opponents are concerned about electricity demands, water use, and environmental impacts and whether local residents will receive enough benefits. Should the community approve the project? Explain your decision and any conditions you would require.

2) Technology, artificial intelligence, social media, video conferencing and other digital tools are changing how people communicate in the workplace. What communications and technology skills will tomorrow's employees need?

For essay submissions:

- Essays must be 500 to 750 words.
- Writing should have clear flow, be free of spelling errors and be grammatically correct.
- Content should be on-topic and researched with sources cited in APA format.
- Do not specify your name, address, school, or any identifying information in your essay. Contest judges will not be given any identifying information to keep the contest fair and unbiased.
- Email, fax, mail, or hand-deliver your essay with your Youth Tour application.

Deadline is 5 p.m., Mon., Nov. 2, 2026.

For video submissions:

- Videos must be between 5 and 7 minutes long.
- Spoken words should be clear, concise, and with minimal fillers (ums, uhs, and silent breaks). It is acceptable to read from a script but remain forward-facing and not look down at notes. Presentation should be professional and polished.
- Content should be on-topic and researched. Sources need to be cited within the speech.
- Do not specify your name, address, school, or any identifying information in your video. Contest judges will not be given any identifying information to keep the contest fair and unbiased.
- Upload your video to YouTube, Vimeo or Dropbox and provide the link on your Youth Tour application. Videos can also be uploaded onto a flash drive or SD card and hand-delivered or mailed. Deadline is 5 p.m., Mon. Nov. 2, 2026.

All submissions will be judged on clarity, factualness, content, and presentation of ideas.

About Youth Tour

The annual Government-in-Action Youth Tour is a collaborative effort between electric cooperatives across the country, New Mexico Rural Electric Cooperatives and the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

High school juniors whose parents or legal guardians are active Continental Divide account holders in good standing are encouraged to apply.

Our Youth Tour director arranges airline flights, hotel accommodations, meals, visits with New Mexico's congressional and state lawmakers and schedules MANY educational and sight-seeing opportunities. The Youth Tour kicks off in Santa Fe where delegates meet top New Mexico lawmakers and tour our state's capital building and other government offices. The Youth Tour delegation then makes its way to Albuquerque for an early morning flight to Washington, D.C.
