

J O B O P E N I N G

Continental Divide Electric Cooperative, Inc. Grants Office is now accepting applications for the position of Staking Technician I. Applications will be taken until the position is filled.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

Looking for an individual to provide electrical service availability to all consumers.

Assists staking new distribution lines to provide electric service to residential and commercial members, in addition to any required maintenance and powerline relocation work.

Assists in preparing cost estimates for all new line extensions and maintenance upgrades using the IntelliBid Estimating Software. Collect data on the field using GPS equipment and create necessary staking sheets utilizing a GIS based staking software.

Assist the Engineering Department in developing and implementing distribution line designs and project cost estimations for Large Power and new housing projects.

Required to answer all questions asked by members in a friendly, cooperative manner. Must also have the ability to communicate both written and verbally.

Applications can be found online at cdec.coop. Please email applications and resumes to rgalindo@cdec.coop or fax to 505-287-2234. Continental Divide Electric Cooperative is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Continental Divide Electric Cooperative is an Equal Opportunity Employer.